Statement of intent

Kaleidoscope Multi-Academy Trust (KMAT) and its schools recognise that certain groups in society can be disadvantaged because of unlawful discrimination they may face due to their race, sex, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, religion or belief, sexual orientation, age, or pregnancy and maternity.

KMAT has a statutory duty to publish an Equality Information and Objectives Statement. This policy sets out how KMAT and its schools determines its equality objectives.

1. Legal framework

This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- Human Rights Act 1998
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Equality Act 2010
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014
- The Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017
- Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED)
- The UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
- Data Protection Act 2018

This policy also has due regard for non-statutory guidance, including the following:

- DfE (2014) 'The Equality Act 2010 and schools'

This policy operates in conjunction with the following Trust policies:

- Equality Information and Objectives Statement
- Admissions Policy
- Complaints Procedures Policy
- Grievance Policy
- Data Protection Policy

The Equality Act 2010 provides a modern, single legal framework with three broad duties:

- Eliminate discrimination harassment and victimisation
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

For the purpose of this policy, the Equality Act 2010 will be referred to as 'the Act'. KMAT and its schools fully understands the principles of the Act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equal opportunities. Protected characteristics, under the Act, are as follows:

- Age
- Disability
- Race including colour, nationality, and ethnic or national origin
- Sex
- Gender reassignment
- Maternity and pregnancy
- Religion and belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and civil partnership

The Act makes it unlawful for the responsible body of schools to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil:

- In relation to admissions.
- In the way it provides education for pupils.
- In the way it provides pupils access to any benefit, facility or service.
- By excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment.

KMAT's liability not to discriminate, harass or victimise does not end when a pupil has left a school, but will apply to subsequent actions connected to the previous relationship between school and pupil, such as the provision of references on former pupils or access to former pupils' communications and activities.

2. Roles and responsibilities

The Trust Board will:

- Ensure that the Trust complies with the appropriate equality legislation and regulations.
- Meet its obligations under the PSED to:
 - Publish equality objectives at least every four years commencing on the date of the last publication.
 - Update and publish information every year to demonstrate Trust and school compliance with the PSED.
- Ensure that KMAT's policies and procedures are developed and implemented with appropriate equality impact assessments informing future plans.
- Ensure that the Trust's Admissions Policy does not discriminate in any way.
- Ensure equal opportunities in its staff recruitment and promotion practices, professional development programmes and in membership of the governing board.
- Proactively recruit high-quality applicants from under-represented groups.
- Provide information in appropriate and accessible formats.
- Ensure that the necessary disciplinary measures are in place to enforce this policy.

The Headteacher/Executive Head/Head of School will:

- Implement and champion this policy and its procedures.
- Ensure that all staff members receive the appropriate equality and diversity training as part of their induction and CPD.
- Ensure that all parents, visitors and contractors are aware of, and comply with, the provisions of this policy.
- Actively challenge and take appropriate action in any case of discriminatory practice.
- Address any reported incidents of harassment or bullying in line with DfE guidance.
- Produce an annual report on the progress of implementing the provisions of this policy and report it to the governing board.

Employees will:

- Be mindful of any incidents of harassment or bullying within schools.
- Track and monitor any instances of discrimination and deal with these in a consistent manner, making a report to the headteacher as necessary and following up with pupils as required.
- Identify and challenge bias and stereotyping within the curriculum and school culture.
- Promote equality and good relations, and not harass or discriminate in any way.

- Monitor pupils' progress and needs to ensure the appropriate support is in place.
- Keep up-to-date with equality legislation and its application by attending the appropriate training.
- Champion diversity and inclusion.

Pupils will:

- Not discriminate or harass any other pupil or staff member.
- Actively encourage equality and diversity in schools by contributing their cultural experiences and values.
- Report any incidences of bullying or harassment, whether to themselves or to others, to the head of year or to another member of staff.
- Abide by all the Trust's equality and diversity policies, procedures and codes.

3. Equality objectives

KMAT and its schools are committed to promoting the welfare and equality of all its staff, pupils and other members of the school community.

KMAT and its schools see all members of its communities as of equal value, regardless of any protected characteristic. KMAT policies, procedures and activities will not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences in life experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barriers and disadvantages which people may face in relation to any protected characteristic.

KMAT's Equality Information and Objectives Statement sets out how schools are meeting the PSED and outlines how equality of opportunity is ensured for all members of the KMAT community. The Equality Information and Objectives Statement is reviewed at least every four years and is published on the KMAT website.

KMAT will consult with stakeholders to establish equality objectives and draw up a plan based on information collected on protected groups and accessibility planning.

To achieve this, KMAT has established the following objectives:

- To use performance data to monitor pupil achievement and respond to variations between pupil groups, subjects, key stages, trends over time and comparisons to other schools/Trusts
- Raise the awareness of skills of staff to promote fairness, equality and good relations in the context of their role(s)
- Provide an environment that welcomes, respects and protects diverse individuals and groups
- Ensure that all KMAT communities are given the opportunity to make a positive contribution to school life
- Increase pupil awareness and understanding of different communities through assemblies and cultural events
- Raise awareness of the impact of bullying, especially where this relates to protected characteristics
- Monitor the incidence of policy breaches.

KMAT will regularly review the steps being taken and the progress made towards the achievement of these objectives and, in line with the specific duties of the PSED.

4. Collecting and using information

In accordance with the requirements outlined in the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018, personal data will be lawfully collected and processed in line with the principles and practices outlined in the Data Protection Policy and only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, e.g. to comply with the Trust's legal obligations.

KMAT and its schools will collect equality information for the purpose of:

- Identifying key issues, e.g. unlawful discrimination in teaching methods.
- Assessing performance, e.g. benchmarking against similar organisations locally or nationally.
- Taking action, e.g. adapting working practice to accommodate the needs of staff who share protected characteristics.

KMAT and its schools will build an equality profile for staff to assist with identifying any issues within their recruitment regime. The school will obtain the following information from their staff:

- Recruitment and promotion
- Numbers of part-time and full-time staff
- Pay and remuneration
- Training
- Return to work of staff members on parental leave
- Return to work of disabled employees following sick leave relating to their disabilities
- Appraisals
- Grievances (including about harassment)
- Disciplinary action (including for harassment)
- Dismissals and other reasons for leaving

5. Publishing information

KMAT will publish information to demonstrate its compliance with the Act. The school will publish information relating to people within the school community who share relevant protected characteristics, including:

- People affected by the school's policies and procedures.

KMAT will not provide this information if:

- The employee is employed under contract personally to do work.
- The employer does not have this information, and it is not reasonably practicable for the employer to obtain the data.

KMAT will publish the following information annually with regard to the gender pay gap:

- The difference between the mean hourly rate of pay of male and female full-pay relevant employees

- The difference between the median hourly rate of pay of male and female full-pay relevant employees
- The difference between the mean bonus pay paid to male and female employees
- The difference between the median bonus pay paid to male and female employees
- The proportions of male and female relevant employees who were paid bonus pay
- The proportions of male and female full-pay relevant employees in lower, lower middle, upper middle, and upper quartile pay bands

The above information will be updated and published annually on the school website in a manner that is accessible to all its employees and to the public for a period of at least three years from the publication date.

6. Promoting equality

This policy and KMAT equality impact documentation outlines our approach to promoting equality and diversity across the whole Trust community.

7. Addressing prejudice-related incidents

KMAT and its schools are opposed to all forms of prejudice. The Trust will ensure that pupils and staff are aware of the impact of prejudice. The school will address any incidents immediately and, where appropriate, report them to the LA.

Any reports of bullying and prejudice will be carefully monitored and dealt with accordingly. Regular training will be given to all staff to ensure that they are aware of the process for reporting and following up incidents of prejudice-related bullying.

8. Complaints procedures

KMAT and its schools aim to resolve all complaints at the earliest possible stage and is dedicated to continuing to provide the highest quality of education possible throughout the procedure. Any person, including a member of the public, is able to make a complaint about the provision of facilities or services that the school provides.

KMAT and its schools will adhere to the Complaints Procedures Policy to ensure a straightforward, impartial, non-adversarial process, that allows a full and fair investigation, respects confidentiality, and delivers an effective response and appropriate redress. If a complaint has completed the school's process and the complainant remains dissatisfied, they have the right to appeal, as outlined in the Complaints Procedures Policy.

KMAT and its schools will work to develop good professional relationships between colleagues; however, the school understands that sometimes conflicts may arise. Through maintaining open communication, the Trust wants its employees to feel able to raise any grievances so that appropriate and effective solutions can be put in place. Grievances raised by staff members will be processed in accordance with the Trust's Grievance Policy.

9. Monitoring and review

KMAT will review this policy every two years, to ensure that all procedures are up-to-date. The policy will be monitored and evaluated by the Trust Board in the following ways:

- Pupil attainment data
- Equal opportunities data
- Equality impact assessments
- Ofsted inspection judgements on equality and diversity
- Incident records related to harassment and bullying

Any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all relevant stakeholders.

Equality Information and Objectives Statement

Opening statement

We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The school's general duties with regard to equality are:

- Eliminating discrimination.
- Fostering good relationships.
- Advancing equality of opportunity.

We will not discriminate against, harass or victimise any staff member, pupil, prospective pupil, or other member of the school community because of their:

- Sex.
- Age.
- Race.
- Disability.
- Religion or belief.
- Sexual orientation.
- Gender reassignment.
- Pregnancy or maternity.
- Marriage and civil partnership.

We aim to promote pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, with special emphasis on promoting equality and diversity, and eradicating prejudicial incidents for pupils and staff. Our school is committed to not only eliminating discrimination, but also increasing understanding and appreciation for diversity.

Aims to eradicate discrimination

We believe that a greater level of success from pupils and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating an inclusive environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school. This environment will be achieved by:

- Being respectful.
- Always treating all members of the school community fairly.
- Developing an understanding of diversity and inclusion and the benefits it can have.
- Adopting an inclusive attitude and ensuring that the whole school community understands what inclusive behaviour looks like in the school and how this aligns with the school's values.
- Adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all.
- Encouraging compassion and open-mindedness.
- Challenging bias and calling it out in order to move the conversation forward.

We are committed to having a balanced, diverse and fair curriculum. We believe that our pupils should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that pupils learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in a way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes.

Dealing with prejudice and celebrating diversity

We do not tolerate any form of prejudice-related incident. Whether direct or indirect, we treat discrimination against all members of our school with the utmost severity. When an incident is reported, our school is devoted to ensuring appropriate action is taken and a resolution is put into place which is both fair and firm.

Our pupils are taught to be:

- Understanding of others.
- Celebratory of diversity.
- Eager to reach their full potential.
- Inclusive.
- Aware of what constitutes discriminatory behaviour.

KMAT's employees will not:

- Discriminate against any member of the school community.
- Treat other members of the school community unfairly.

KMAT's employees will:

- Promote diversity and equality.
- Encourage and adopt an inclusive attitude.
- Lead by example.
- Seek training if they need to improve their knowledge in a particular area.

Throughout the year, the school provides a variety of opportunities to celebrate diversity, including:

- Planning activities awareness.
- Inviting guest speakers to talk to pupils about diversity.
- Incorporating lessons about diversity into the curriculum.

Equality and dignity in the workplace

We do not discriminate against staff with regard to their:

- Age.
- Disability.
- Gender reassignment.
- Marital or civil partner status.
- Pregnancy or maternity.
- Race.
- Religion or belief.
- Sex.
- Sexual orientation.

Equality of opportunity and non-discrimination extends to the treatment of all members of the school community. All staff members are obliged to act in accordance with the school's various policies relating to equality.

We will guarantee that no redundancy is the result of direct or indirect prejudice. All disciplinary procedures are non-prejudicial, whether they result in warnings, dismissal, or any other disciplinary action.

KMAT has established the following objectives:

- To use performance data to monitor pupil achievement and respond to variations between pupil groups, subjects, key stages, trends over time and comparisons to other schools/Trusts
- Raise the awareness of skills of staff to promote fairness, equality and good relations in the context of their role(s)
- Provide an environment that welcomes, respects and protects diverse individuals and groups
- Ensure that all KMAT communities are given the opportunity to make a positive contribution to school life
- Increase pupil awareness and understanding of different communities through assemblies and cultural events
- Raise awareness of the impact of bullying, especially where this relates to protected characteristics
- Monitor the incidence of policy breaches.

Diversity and representation

Inclusion

Across KMAT and its schools, we work hard to ensure that all members of our communities feel safe and included. We promote pupil beliefs in themselves and their abilities and adopt a whole school/MAT approach to the responsibility of inclusion. We seek external support where needed to allow our pupils to progress and develop and inclusive practice is reflected throughout our policies and procedures.

Closing statement

KMAT and its schools are committed to encouraging and achieving equality, diversity and inclusion of education and opportunity across our communities. The guiding principles in this policy are equally applicable to pupils, staff, visitors, parents/carers, local governors and trustees.

KMAT aim to develop a culture of inclusion in which all those connected to the Trust feel proud of their identity and are able to fully participate in school life.

Prejudice is not tolerated and we are continuously working towards a more accepting and respectful environment for our school community.
